The Society is pleased to announce that the ASHG 2017 Annual Meeting has been approved for 31.00 contact hours for California-licensed clinical and molecular laboratory directors. ASHG was granted approval through the American Society for Clinical Laboratory Science and their Professional Acknowledgement for Continuing Education (P.A.C.E.) Program. These contact hours will be accepted by the California Department of Health Services, Laboratory Field Services. Please note that cytogenetic technicians can also use the P.A.C.E. program for CEUs, but ASHG is not responsible for assuring that any of the technical CYTO organizations accept them.

Clinical Laboratory Scientists should apply for P.A.C.E. CEUs. The American Board of Medical Genetics and Genomics (ABMGG) will accept P.A.C.E. CEUs for diplomats participating in the MOC program in the following categories: Clinical Biochemical Geneticist, Clinical Cytogeneticist, and Clinical Molecular Geneticist.

Steps in the process:

- Visit the ASHG Meeting Management Society Office, Room 210C in the Orange County Convention Center, South Building (OCCC), to sign in on the roster sheet required by P.A.C.E.
- The P.A.C.E. Certification for Attendance will be done online. Registrants must apply for credits via the online submission system. Please visit the ASHG Meeting website starting October 20, 2017, when the submission site is scheduled to open. You will need your registration I.D. or your username from the Mobile App to successfully complete the P.A.C.E. application.
- There is a non-refundable $35 fee payable during the registration process. If you did not pay the fee when you registered, you must pay it during the online application process.
- To help you track the sessions you attended, please use the Program-at-a-Glance or the Mobile App.
- This packet has a sample of the Program Evaluation and the Learning Objectives for each approved session. The online application will ask you to answer the evaluation questions for each session you attended.
