Four students from Dubuque Senior High School will attend the Business Professionals of America 2008 National Leadership Conference from May 7-11 in Reno, Nev.

Chapter members Angela Dani, Molly Glynn, Crispine Tembe and Emily Weig will join more than 6,000 conference delegates from across the nation at the "Find Your Fit" conference.

Tembe also will campaign for a national officer position.

Business Professionals of America is a national organization for middle school, high school and college students preparing for careers in business and information technology.

Beckman student wins newspaper scholarship

DYERSVILLE, Iowa -- A Beckman High School student is one of nine Iowa students selected as recipients of the Iowa Newspaper Foundation scholarships for the 2008-09 academic year.

Kristen Sogaard received a $1,000 Iowa Newspaper Foundation scholarship and plans to attend the University of Iowa this fall.

Sogaard competed against 52 other applicants to receive one of the nine scholarships. The scholarships are awarded to students preparing for a career in the newspaper industry in Iowa.

Wahlert student named to honor

Aaron Behnke, a student at Wahlert Catholic High School, was honored recently as a Better Business Bureau Student of Integrity.

Behnke was one of five high school seniors presented with a $1,000 college scholarship.

"Our future is in good hands," said Chris Coleman, president of the BBB in Iowa, in a press release. "These young leaders are smart, honest and talented."

The Students of Integrity program was developed by the BBB eight years ago to recognize high school students for their honesty and integrity.
