

School briefs

12:00 AM CDT on Sunday, May 25, 2008

Senior to play college basketball in Great Lakes Conference

Paul II High School senior Kelly Regan recently accepted a four-year scholarship to Rockhurst University in Kansas City, Mo., where she will play NCAA Division II basketball in the Great Lakes Conference and eventually pursue a doctorate in physical therapy.

Robinson student places second in National DNA essay contest

Felix Wangmang of Robinson Middle School placed second and won $250 in the third annual National DNA Day Essay Contest, sponsored by the American Society of Human Genetics and the Genetics Society of America.

Wylie High named Rachel's

Challenge School of the Year

Wylie High School's Friends of Rachel Club has been named the national Rachel's Challenge 2008 School of the Year. Darrell Scott, Rachel's father, presented the award to the school earlier this month. Rachel Scott died in the Columbine High School shootings in 1999. Her family began Rachel's Challenge to promote tolerance and kindness.